

Rogue Gallery & Art Center 2023 Annual Report

DIRECTOR'S REPORT

This year brought big changes to the Rogue Gallery & Art Center. Kim Hearon retired from her position of Executive Director in the late spring, after over ten years of dedicated service. I am very honored to have been chosen as the new director. This organization has existed since 1960, making it the oldest visual arts non-profit in the Rogue Valley. Decades of people have come before me to make this gallery what it is today. The names you see in this list are a continuation of the wonderful people who believe that art strengthens our community and improves our lives, and who support art with their resources of time and finances.

In the year ahead, we look forward to a great schedule of exhibitions, programming, and new collaborations with community members and other non-profits. We have many wonderful classes for artists and art appreciators, and love suggestions of what you want to see. It is, after all, your Rogue Gallery & Art Center.

Thank you for your support! It makes a difference!

2023 VOLUNTEERS

Rogue Gallery volunteers are interesting, talented, helpful, and just all round great people. They welcome visitors, pour wine at receptions, hang exhibits, help with classes, help with fundraisers, serve on committees, and serve as board members. We could not do it without them, and we are so grateful for their work.
